In Loving Memory of

Matthew Robert Wrenn

(December 22, 1989 - November 26, 2007)

But they that wait upon the LORD shall renew their strength; they shall mount up the wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; and they shall walk, and not faint.

Isiah 40:31

Thank you for visiting our amazing, Son, Brother, Grandson, Uncle, Nephew, Cousin, Boyfriend, and Friend. If you knew him, he was much wiser than his age. If you did not, you missed a chance to interact with a true Angel on earth.

This memorial website is in loving memory of our precious Matthew Robert Wrenn who was born in West Virginia Beckley, WV on December 22, 1989 and passed away on November 26, 2007 at the age of 17, from injuries received in a car accident with his buddy Justin Janes. He was a loving son of Sandra and Jesse Belcher and Howard and Vicky Wrenn. Sisters Kimberly and Husband, Matthew Graham, and Lisa Wrenn. Step sisters Amanda Troop, Jessica Stennett, Alycia Jones and April Zebosky. Stepbrothers, Eric and Jessie Blecher; His Beautiful Girlfiend, Heather Church; A special niece, Morgan Wrenn; and two special nephews, Cade and Braden Graham. A host of uncle, aunts and cousins. His Pastor and wife J.L. Riffe, Church family at The Mullens Church of God and numerous Class Mates and Friends.

Someone asked me if i missed you.. i didn't answer. i just closed my eyes and walked away. then i ♥ whispered "so much."

I can't get over you,

Because I carried you for nine long months, and you were there, right under my heart.

I can't get over you,

Because I felt your butterfly flutterings and your tiny taps, to let me know that you were part of me, and my life forever.

I can't get over you,

Because I fell in love with you the very second that I knew you were there, and I knew that we were forever one.

I can't get over you,

Because I heard your first cry as you entered this world,

And because I held your body so close to my heart.

I can't get over you because, I heard your first burp, and kissed your head for the first time.

I can't get over you,

Because I saw your first tear as it fell upon your cheek and because you looked at me with such trusting loving eyes, that made me the center of your world.

I can't get over you, my precious child,

because I saw your first steps and heard your first laugh,

I held you so tightly, and rocked you through the night.

I can't get over you,

Because you trusted me to love and take care of you.

I can't get over you because you were, and still are, my child.

I will never get over you,
Because I am your mother,
And I will love you forever,
I will never get over you!

The Cord

We are connected, My child and I,
By an invisible cord, Not seen by the eye.

It's not like the cord that connects us til birth,

This cord can't be seen by any on earth.

This cord does it's work right from the start,

It binds us together, Attached to my heart.

I know that it's there, Though no one can see,

The invisible cord from my child to me.

The strength of this cord is hard to describe,

It can't be destroyed, It can't be denied.

It's stronger than any cord man could create,

It withstands the test, Can hold any weight.

And though you are gone and not here with me,

The cord is still there, But no one can see.

It pulls at my heart, I am bruised..I am sore,

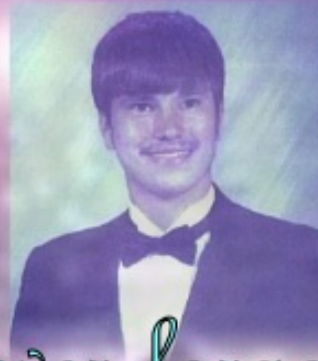

But this cord is my life line, As never before.

I am thankful that god connects us this way,

A mother and child...Death can't take that away!

A Mother's Love

I,ll Never Let You Go

My heart is full of memories,
With pride I speak your name.
Though life goes on without you
It will never be the same.

Behind my smile there's many a tear
For you I loved so very dear.
There's an empty place no-one can fill,
I miss you now and always will.

God Bless You!

Matthew and His Girlfriend Heather

He Only Took My Hand Mom

Last night while I was sleeping, my son's voice I did hear

I opened my eyes and looked in his room
But Matthew didn't appear

He said:

"Mom you've got to listen, you've got to understand
God didn't take me from you, he only took my hand

When I called out in pain that night, he instantly reached down, took my hand and pulled me gently to his side, lifted me up and saved me from all the misery and pain inside.
My body hurt so badly, I could never be the same

My search is really over now
I've found happiness within, all the answers to my empty dreams and all that might have been

I love and miss you soooo very much, I'll always be near by My body's gone forever
But my spirit will never die

So you must go on now and live one day at a time
Until we meet again

Just understand:

God didn't take me from you, he only took my hand!!!!

Mom, Please Remember
The Good Times We Had,
When You Do,

You Won't Be So Sad.

I Am Always With You
and Never Far Away.

I'm In Every Thought
You Have Every Single Day,

I Know Your Tears Will Still Fall

You Do Miss Me After All.

I Am Happy And Am So Free

I Am With Jesus,

Where I Need To Be.

Above him
were seraphs,
each with six wings ... and they were calling to one another:
"Holy, holy,
holy is the
LORD
Almighty; the whole earth is full of his glory."

Matthew

MAY THE LIGHT OF YOUR LOVE

BURN WITHIN US UNTIL WE MEET AGAIN

I Hear Each Tear Fall On Her Face

My Mom doesn't know I'm watching her
but I'm watching her just the same.
And I hear each tear fall on her face
at the very mention of my name.

She says it sounds like music to her ears
and can be heard over a crowd.
Oh, I hear each tear fall on her face
when my name is said aloud.

I watch her stumble through each day
as she wishes the day would end.
And I hear each tear fall on her face
as she talks of me to her friends.

But there are few who truly understand
Oh this I've heard her proclaim.
And I hear each tear fall on her face
Will my Mom ever be the same?

I know that her smiles light up a sky
But, I don't see that smile today.
Oh, but I hear each tear fall on her face.
Her blue skies turned to gray.

Oh, I send to her my warmest hug
with the rays of the morning sun.
Then, I won't hear a tear fall on her face
For I shall erase them one by one.

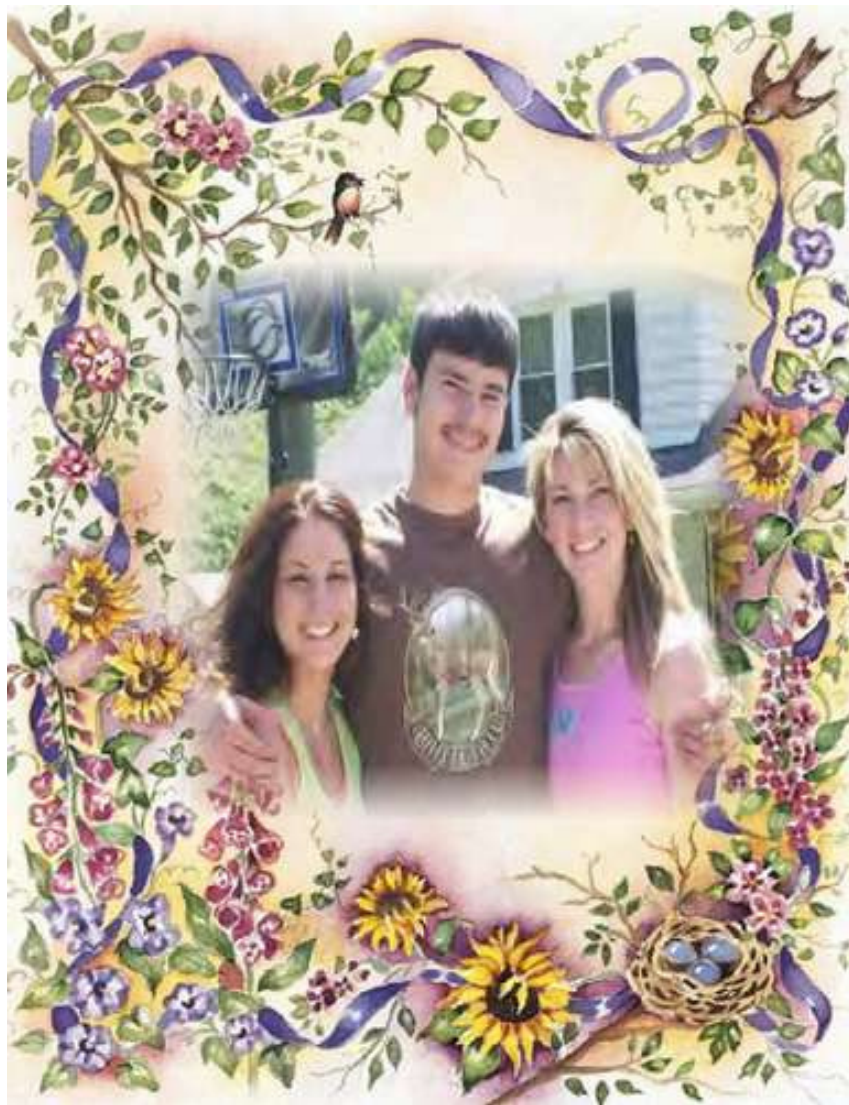

Yes, my Mom doesn't know I'm watching her.
But I'm watching her just the same.

And if I hear a tear fall on her face
I'll just softly whisper her name!

Thank you Susan Mother to Kurtis Cleaver

 Thank you Susan Mother to Kurtis Cleaver

Lisa, Matthew and Kimberly !

A single tear falls
as she remembers your memory before she had to say goodbye.

Love lost in a blink of an eye
Your touch just fallen by the way as she lost you that fateful day.

Listen closely
and you will hear her pray
My Love
I Will Love You
Today, Tomorrow
and Always.

Everyday is a little harder

March 28, 2008

Hey little man, It's me. This past weekend was Easter and I don't know how or why, but it was the hardest holiday of all. Everywhere I looked you were there and you were on my mind so bad. It was good things of course but it's good things I will never get to experience with you again. Buddy, I need you really bad right now. This is just so hard on me here lately that I am having a really hard time functioning just day to day. I feel like everything is crumbling beneath me. I want to talk to you and hold you and just hear you laugh. I want to go 4-wheeler riding and jump on the back of your motorcycle. You're the only person I've ever trusted on a motorcycle. Words can't even express how I am feeling right now. I can't even start to try to explain it. I get so mad and angry and don't know what exactly I'm angry at. I can't stand to see people laughing and having a good time because it makes me so mad. I get mad because I can't do that and I want to but I don't want to do anything without you. Nothing makes much sense right now. My moods are erratic and I can see you laughing at me up there thinking that your sister has lost her mind. I feel like I have but really I have just lost a huge part of my life very tragically and I don't know how to cope with that. Nothing seems to be easy to cope with right now. Things I would usually laugh at and just toss over my shoulder are getting to me. I can't quit crying and then the next minute I'm ready to punch someone's lights out. Yep, you're thinking I'm crazy. Help me little man and everyone else too. I know no one is coping right. I just wanted to vent to you for a few. I want to laugh and remember the good times. I want to be your old lil sis again. I know nothing will ever be the same but I need help buddy. Keep me in your arms. I love you so much. Miss you even more if that is possible.

How did I cope with the death of my daughter

March 26, 2008

Dear Sandy,

I feel so bad for you and your family. It takes a very long time to begin to think you can ever live a normal life again. I lost my daughter 3 years, 5 months, and 17 days ago. She also died in a tragic car accident and died on impact. She left behind a little boy who turned three years old, three weeks after her death. He was her life and she was his.

I have custody of her son, but believe me it wasn't easy. It took two and a half years to get custody of Jeremy. His father is alive...but it's a long story...let's just say my daughter wasn't with him after her son turned 1 year old. Laws are suppose to protect the innocent, but Mothers and Grandmother's didn't write the laws so you can only imagine the rough ride we had.

When Angie died, I thought I was going to die also. She was my only daughter and I have two sons, one younger than her and one older. Angie was such a big part of my life. She was my friend as much as my daughter. My heart felt there was a long tunnel with a big black hole at the bottom and I was sinking into it but not getting any closer to her. It hurt. Some times I would break down and cry and I really thought that was going to be the end. The pain was unbearable.

After her first year of passing, I thought okay I should be able to do this now. I have been through ever holdiyay or family events and I made it, so now I thought it would be a lot easier. Boy I don't want to discourage you but the second year was worse. The first year I went through everything in numbness, but the second I had to do everything in reality.

It was towards the end of the second year that I could honesty say, that I begin to feel normal and able to par take in things in life. Being alone was a comfort to me. Having my husband and grandson with me all the time, sure did help. We went through this together.

Everyone is different, and I think the more love you have for God, the easier it makes it. The site also helped because I felt I was with people who were going through the same thing as me and understood my pain, hurt, and anger. THE WHY'S I had so many of them.

I know your son and his friend Justin has only been gone four months, so I can feel for you and your family. Let it be a comfort that Robert had his friend and Jesus holding each of his hands leading him into the next journey of his life.

I remember reading some sites, as you must and wonder how can some of these families sound so positive and up lifted and I felt like dieing. I could tell that they loved their child as much as I loved mine...but why could they cope. I wrote and expressed myself with them. The answer was "TIME" and how true it is. Time does help big time. They didn't love their child any less than the day they died...they just learned to cope and accept.

Everything will happen naturally for you just like it has for many of us. Let God be your savior and pray for strength, it helps. Anytime you need someone to chat with you can e-mail me at polopool@yahoo.ca Angie has two sites www.angie-robert.memory-of.com and www.angie-robert.last-memories.com

If you go back to the beginning of Angie's site on the memory-of site and read her condolences you will probably see yourself in my words. We're mother's and this isn't fair. We should have gone before our child. We lived our life much longer than them. But like I said before we didn't write the laws, we only have to live by them. Whether they're God's law or man's law!

Bless you

Matthew,

I was thinking about you and decided to make my daily visit to look at your pictures. I have a few of me and you and Matt shooting our bows last year. I miss you. We sat on the side porch the other night and just looked at the candle in your window. He misses you more every day. He told me last night that he didn't feel like he should even sing along to the radio anymore. You were always singing those country songs and laughing at me when I butchered the words. I wish I could see the same light in my Matt's eyes that you could always bring. I've been trying to be here every day with him, but I can never come close to being the friend you were. It's like there is a big whole where you should be for everybody that knew you. I wish I could have realized what a big part of us all that you were; I wish I could have told you. You always knew just what I needed to do. It was like someone was telling you all the moves to make and I guess He was. I just want to tell you that you are a phenomenal person and we are all better people because we knew you. I'm gonna see you again someday and hear your infectious laugh. That is the part I miss the most. Keep an eye on all the ones that love you.

It still hasn't gotten easier buddy. Not a day goes by that I am still trying to live with this. I agree with Kimberly, you are the only boy who loved me unconditionally. You never looked at all the mistakes I made or stupid things I've done, to you I was your lil sis and you loved me for just that. How I wish I could hug you and see your smile. You were always a comfort in my life. I don't know how to go on without my little brother. I too think about your accident everyday. I always think of how scared you must have been. I wish I could of been there. I want to save you and have you back with us. Life just isn't right. I see you laying in the hospital, feel you. I will never forget how cold you were. I just want to wrap you in my arms and make you warm again. Matthew, keep your loving arms wrapped around all of us. You were mine and Kimberly's little man. I don't think anyone of us are the same without you. The one thing we do know is you are in heaven and how that gives us comfort. I'm so proud of you. I love you and miss you terribly.

Every day the thought of going on without you takes my breath away. I miss you so terribly. This hasn't gotten any eaiser. I just want my baby brother to come back to me. I dream about your accident, and I can't stop thinking about you suffering. I would have done anything to have changed this. I see your friends and I get so angry. It's hard to understand how they go on laughing and living. I know how selfish this is, but I just always wanted your life to be wonderful. Cade says you are running over angels in heaven, and he is so sure of this. Braden just wants you to come back and take him out on the motorcycle. I don't want the boys to ever lose the memories of what a wonderful man you were. I just don't know if I can do this Matthew, help us to understand. I love you so much, and I don't know if my heart can ever be mended. Especially right now I need you here to hug me and tell me you love me. I know you always tried to be understanding of our mistakes, and you loved us no matter what. You were the first boy to love me unconditionally. I miss you, and need you so badly. Precious Son

January 26, 2008

Dear Mommy,

Mommy did you think of me today?
Mommy did you cry?
Mommy I know that it is hard for you
And can't understand why
Mommy please don't be angry with God
It was time for me to leave
I know that there are questions
And answers you can't believe
But know mommy that I'm okay
And never left your side
Do you hear the things I say?
Can you find the things I hide?
The only thing I cannot take away
Is the pain that your heart feels
So I asked the Lord for just one wish
To help your heart to heal
He told me to think carefully
About what I could say or do
To show how much you mean to me
And how much I miss you too
I thought of all the little things
That used to make us laugh
I thought of all the prayers you have
Just to have me back
I knew just what my wish would be
It was there in front of me

In Loving Memory of...
Matthew Robert

A beautiful Dove God gave to me
To show me of his love
I whispered to the dove
I told him how to find you
I placed him on a rainbow
So mommy when you think of me
And cannot bare the pain
Look for the gift I sent to you
And allow my memory to remain
I am in every laugh you have
In every hug you share
I am the one who knows your soul
And want you mommy to let go
Take with you the memories
Of the life you made
And remember I never meant to Cause you so much pain
So when you need to feel my touch
Or to know that I'm still there
Find the gift I sent from above
And see in it all my love
When you see a feather on the ground
Know that I am still around.....

Where do I begin? I never knew your handsome Matthew, but I thank you from the bottom of my heart for visiting our son's site and lighting a candle for him. (<http://andrew-collins.last-memories.com>) Life isn't always fair, nor can we justify the tragedies that are sent our way. The loss of a child is like no other; I wouldn't wish this loneliness, this pain and void, on anyone. We know in our hearts that our boys are in Heaven and that God is good to them. It's simply such an adjustment attempting to move forward without them. The realization that they aren't coming back, will take some time. I'm not sure that I'll ever actually accept that, but I do know that with time, I'm beginning to learn how to smile again and to laugh at some of the things that Andrew did or said without bursting into tears. It helps to talk about your son and it also becomes very therapeutic to maintain a journal.

I wish you and your family hugs and prayers. I know that you're journey has just begun and please, email me anytime if you need to vent. debi.lynne@hotmail.com all the gray you turned into colors...

Kimberly (Big Sis)

It's funny how time moves on, yet I feel still like I am stuck in November and time never really moves on. So many of my thoughts are of you. I remembered the other day how I had on a sequined dress at homecoming and you chased the sparkles it made on the cabinets in the kitchen just giggling. Most of my memories include your smile. I also remembered how I laid my head on your chest on Thanksgiving and wish so much for that moment back. Braden told the teacher at daycare the other day about his uncle Matthew and how much he missed them. I hope they never forget that. They love you so much. I miss you dearly Matthew. My life has changed so much and I just want to grab back the good times we had. I hope my heart heals a little. Love you so much. Life is not the same for Lisa and me without our little brother.

Megan Tolliver

I love and miss you more everyday. It seems like only yesterday you left us and now it is almost a year. It is almost hunting season and I know that you would be so excited. Dad and I were talking about you the other day saying how he wished he could go out into the woods with you one more time. I can't wait to see you again Matt. Thank you for helping Heather I saw her the other day and she had her smile back. I love and miss you.

Tanya Humphrey

I drew this in memory of one of the best friends I could ever imagine having. I am so grateful to have met you and to have had you as a friend. I miss you so much Matt, but all that I can imagine now is the day I get to see you again. I LOVE & MISS YOU more and more everyday. Love you, Tanya

Lil Sis Lisa

Hey Buddy, I wanted to drop in and say hello. Matthew, we went to your graduation and it just wasn't right. You should have been up there. I kept thinking the whole time how excited the day would have been for you and what silly thing you would have done to make us all laugh while we were sitting in the bleachers. I kept imaging you there and seeing you smile but you weren't there buddy, instead we got to hold a picture of your smiling face but I wanted to hold you. We should have been celebrating the rest of your life but instead we were holding onto your memories. I will always cherish everything about you. More and more each day I think of how lucky I was to have you as my baby brother. I feel like we have been robbed of the most precious memories. You should have got to celebrate everything you worked for because you worked so hard. Algebra almost got you, but you would have graduated with honors the other day. I remember being at the store working and luckily I had just taken some math classes that previous summer because you were so scared that you were going to fail algebra and get your motorcyclye taken away so me and you leaned over the register all that evening and worked on your homework. Remember the day we had a buggy race after we closed. That was great! There are so many memories of you and all of them are the best memories I have. Those days are gone now but are forever stored in my heart. I was thinking last night about the night you died. I remember it like it was yesterday and always will but I don't want to rememer that night as vividly as I do. I want to remember your life. I want to be everything you were because no one could compare to you. How you are missed little man. You couldn't even imagine. Your smile lives in mind everyday. Some times I look up at the sky and just stare and I can see your smile up in heaven. I think I'm hoping to open the skies and see you standing there but if I close my eyes, your watching. I want to make you proud and if I can be half the person you were, I know I will because I'm more and more proud of you everyday. I'm going to go now but buddy words can't say how I miss you. I love you SOOOOOO much. You're an angel!!!!

Lil Sis Lisa

Karen

Matthew,

We watched the prom videos from last year and it took my breath away when I saw you and Heather outside the school. You had the contagious grin. We then saw you dancing. I wanted so bad to hug you but I saw you... We miss you and would give anything if you would have been on that stage. I close my eyes and see you walking through the yard when we were going to the football tournaments, that was time no one can take away from us and time Dwight and I will cherish for the rest of our lives. or as Dwight says it was ment to be. If only you knew how much we talked about that time . We loved it so much and your story about Mr. Mills calling you little Wrenn boy and going to take away your driver licences. I know that you will be with us all on Graudation Sunday. We miss you and love you beyond words. ..^i^..^i^..

Big Sis Kimberly

I think what I am missing right now is the memories we will never have-prom, graduation. I feel like I have been robbed of one of the most precious things I was ever given. Matthew you were the best brother anyone could ever have. I remember you playing soccer and always bringing Lisa, mom, and me back a snack along with yours. You were always thinking of us first, you really loved us. I can see you now Homecoming my senior year chasing the sparkles the sun made from my dress around the kitchen. The amazement in your eyes and smile always made me happy. It is true that losing someone like you changes your life. Cade says that "mommy you've lost your laugh." He's right, I have. By the way, Braden says he's getting mad at you for leaving the motorcycle tire flat. They remember the attention you gave them, and they miss you. I hope to have some type of bandaid for my heart someday. I miss you so. Lisa and I would do anything to have our little man back to wrestle with. You always wanted to beat us so badly. Love you always!!!!!!

Lil Sis (Lisa)

Hey little man, it's me. I haven't wrote in a while but Matthew, buddy, everyday is a struggle. I look at this page all the time and words just can't describe what we are all feeling. Morgan misses you terribly. Send her a little comfort, could ya. She had a dream that me and her were walking into the gates of heaven and she said the horns were blowing for us to come in and you were on top of a house and you seen us and jumped off the house with your big smile coming to get us. Oh boy buddy, how I would love to see that beautiful smile walking towards me. I heard your voice for the first time in months yesterday. Heather had a recording on her phone of the two of you singing and I had her send it to me. It was the most wonderful thing to hear you. You started laughing in the middle of it and it was the most beautiful sound I have heard in a long time. I miss talking to you little man. You could make me laugh and feel so much love. I don't think me and Kimberly could have loved any brother more. You are and will forever be our baby. I was watching Morgan play softball yesterday and I could see you running across the field in your yellow jersey and black hat, looking so small and cute, just smiling. I love you soooo much and miss you more. Everyday is getting harder, your everywhere I look but I know your never coming back. My life will never be the same without you. You were the man in my life even when you were a baby. No one messed with my brother. I love you buddy, wrap us all in your warmth.

Matt, I first met you when we were freshmen. Ever since then you were one of my best friends. We have had class together every year and I was happy for that. I would look forward to having class with you when summer was in and seeing your beautiful smile. You made class a whole lot more fun and easier to go to. I could never imagine not meeting such a wonderful person as you. I am grateful that God let us have the four years of friendship we had and I was fortunate enough to have met you. You made my life and many others so much more brighter and special. I await the day to see you, Tiffany, Nick, Justin, and my grandpa and grandma again. I have tried my hardest to make all of you proud. Until then, I love you and miss you dearly. You are my guardian angel.

I wrote this poem in remembrance of one of my best friends...Matthew Robert Wrenn....I talked to him everyday...and I will never forget that....It will be hard to go on without him in my classes....but he will be with me and everyone else...but heres the poem i wrote for him the day i found out...

Guardian Angel....

While it seems like just yesterday we met,

It was really the day we had to say goodbye.
The friendship we have formed will remain in my heart,
And you will be our Guardian Angel.
You had a heart that was warmer than a fire's hearth;
It shined much farther than here on earth.
My memories of you will remain within your smile,
that always shined for over a mile.
I will look and picture you with God above;
I will see you in the flight of a morning dove.
I know you wouldn't want us all to cry,
So I will do my hardest to try.
You will always remain our Guardian Angel.

Love and Miss you more and more everyday,

Tanya Humphrey

Well, Matt we had Pastor's Appreciation Day Sunday. You would have been proud of your class, they gave a little skit, which I heard was great. I was in the kitchen of course and missed it. I know you were looking down on us from upon high. I remember one year after we had the dinner you were in the kitchen with your mom and Mary, I walked in and there you were helping with the dishes. I don't guess I will ever forget that one day. How you gave that great big smile of yours, when I said oh! my goodness Mathew, they have you doing dishes. You said to me, I do dishes a lot. I know you were always there to give a helping hand when I ask you to do anything. I was setting her and I got you on my mind, just wanted to say I miss you and Justin so much.

Matthew remember how you would come and talk to me at night. I miss that you would talk about your life your goals and your hurts. I miss that so much. How you told us you had to get a deer so we would have meat for the winter. That was so important to you. You was like all hunters had to have all the new toys hunters had. Remember the cough muffel, how you put in over your mouth and coughed in it. I Look at all of these things and it gives me good memories . I never realized you had so many pairs of gloves. Your hands was always so beautiful to me. Matthew you was and are one of the most precious parts of my life. I never had to worry about you and your sisters relationship. You were and still are their baby boy. How many times did you put shows on for their friends. You was always surrounded by their friends. You went to so many ballgames that you could have been their private cheerleader. I MISS YOU BUDDY HOW I LOVE AND WISH YOU WERE HERE MAKING SOME OF YOUR WILD NOICES, THAT ONLY YOU COULD MAKE. HOW MANY TIMES DID YOU SCARE ME TO DEATH BY JUST SUDDENLY LETTING OUT A LOUD WAR HOOP. BABY I LOVE YOU. NEVER HAS A MOTHER BEEN AS PROUD OF A SON AS I WAS YOU. HOW MANY TIMES DID I TELL YOU HOW PROUD I WAS OF YOU, AND YOU WOULD ASK WHY, AND I WOULD TELL YOU JUST BECAUSE YOU WERE SUCH A GOOD AND LOVING PERSON. MATTHEW YOU CARED AND WORRIED ABOUT EVERYBODY YOU LOVED. YOUR FRIENDS WERE BLESSED TO HAVE YOU CARE FOR THEM. YOU NEVER JUDGED ANYTHING THEY DID . YOU JUST LOVED THEM. WHAT A LIGHT YOU WERE . WE HAD A WORK DAY AT THE CHURCH TODAY I WENT BY AND SAW A YOUNG BOY THERE. IT WAS TYLER, AND IT MADE ME THINK OF YOU AND HOW WOULD OF BEEN THERE AND YOU WOULD OF MADE SURE JUSTIN WAS THERE TO . THE CHURCH WAS YOUR FIRST LOVE AND FOR A 17 YEAR OLD THAT WAS UNUSAL. WHEN THE FLOOD CAME AND YOU WAS ONLY 11 AND YOU HELPED THE CHURCH TEAR OUT THE WALLS SO WE COULD BUILD BACK. REMEMBER HOW YOU HELPED JESSE FILL THE LARGE HOLE IN THE HOUSE WHAT WAS IT ABOUT 42 BAGS OF CEMENT. JESSE SAID YOU HAD TO KEEP UP WITH HIM. WHAT WAS IT 2 TRUCKS LOADS OF ROCK YOU AND JESSE PUT IN THE HOLE. YOU TWO REALLY WORKED THAT DAY. YOU DID'NT LET JESSE GET THE BEST OF YOU. WHEN YOU WERE ONLY TWO YEARS OLD YOU SHOVELED HORSE MANURE ON THE GARDEN. YOU WERE SO DIRTY THEN. WHEN YOU WERE ONLY ONE YEAR OLD YOU WOULD GO TO WORK WITH ME AT BIG DAVES. I WOULD TAKE A LARGE BEAN BAG FORYOU TO LAY ON. YOU WOULD CLIMB ON THE POP. SON I'M GLAD YOU WERE SO MUCH A PART OF MY LIFE. LOVE YOU SO MUCH. I MISSS YOU SO MUCH.

Angelia (Justin's Mom)

Matthew, I will always remember the time you and Justin were riding the go-cart on the riverbank. It was November 11, 2007, just 15 days before the accident. I can still hear you guys laughing and carrying on. You were having so much fun.

Megan Tolliver

Matt,

I will never forget us always making fun of Whitney together. When I think about you I hear your laugh, You were a amazing person. Thank you for always being there when I need you. The trip to see Casting Crowns was so much fun I dont think we quit laughing the whole time. Between you and Pams driving it was a blast. It is still hard to think you are gone, not a day goes by that you are not on my mind. Your family is always in my prayers, Your mom is a amazing woman, you were her life and to think she is still thanking the Lord. She is wonderful, you were very blessed with a amazing mom. I love and miss you more then words can say.

I want to stroll over Heaven with you.

Big Sis (Kimberly)

I don't have a single bad memory of you. Everything you did with us made it special. Lisa and I realized how boring we are at Christmas. You are the glue that held us all together, you are the laughter and joy. We've lost our joy. I miss you terribly. I'm glad to have the memories we shared. The freezing trip to the cabin, the trips to the beach, the bruises from the little hammer you had. I think I am one of the few people in the world who can say I've never had a bad word with my brother, not one fight or argument. You are so special, how lucky we all were to have you. I just wish I had more time with you, I need you. I love you so much little brother!!!!!!

Lil Sis (Lisa)

Buddy, there are so many memories and every day I can think of a new one. You're plastic hammers always banging our shins, you dancing like Elvis, and loving to just ride down the road with me so we could turn the music up loud and dance like crazies. You have always been the most special man in my life and no one could ever make me laugh like you. I can see you just turning up your music driving and singing and then all of a sudden you let out your woo hoo and bang the steering wheel and bounce up down in your seat just laughing. I miss your smile so much. I couldn't of ever imagined living my life without my little brother. We sang together, we laughed, and you loved that you were taller than me and Kimberly. I don't ever remember a time that you called me anything but "sis". It kills me to never be able to hear that again or just feel you squeeze my ribs or my knees because you made me jump like crazy. I could still wrestle with you tho and take you down just not as often because I'm getting old and you wouldn't let me forget that. Matthew, you have impacted my life like no one ever will. You have always been my baby and not a day went by that I wasn't proud to have you as my brother. I'm sorry we will never get to sing a song together in church but I'm goin to try buddy. You brought me true joy and always will. You brought true joy with u everywhere you went and without you this Christmas wasn't right. You were the one who kept us laughing and your presence was the most special thing. It still lives in my heart and I will see you again someday. I PROMISE!!!! You were an angel here on earth, no boy could of been better, but I know you are an even better one in heaven. Keep an eye on us. My eyes are reaching for you. I LOVE YOU!!!!

son there was so many things that we remembered about you and Christmas how you were afraid you wouldn't get anything if we drew names. You was such a holiday person. you was always the one who kept us laughing. How i laugh when i think of the things you did. you was always making some kind of noise, singing or going on about something. YOU was a joy to be around. I LOVE YOU BUDDY.

SON YOU ARE MY HERO. I'VE LOST THE MOST PRECIOUS PART OF MY LIFE . I WAS ALWAYS WORRIED ABOUT YOU GOING TO THE CABIN, BECAUSE PEOPLE TOLD ME ABOUT THE BEARS. I COULD JUST SEE YOU BOYS COMING UP ON ONE. HOW I WORRIED ABOUT YOU. EVERYTIME YOU WENT DOWN THE ROAD OR TO THE MOVIES , I COULDN'T WAIT TILL YOU CALLED TO LET ME KNOW HOW YOU WERE. YOU NEVER CALLED THAT NIGHT. IT'S HARD TO TELL SOMEONE HOW YOUR LIFE HAS BECOME A COLLAGE OF LAST AND FIRST, THE LAST

SMILE YOU SEEN THE LAST HUG YOU FELT, THE LAST KISS YOU RECEIVED, AND THE LIST GOES ON , THEN IS THE LIST OF FIRSTS, THE FIRST DAY WITHOUT YOU THE FIRST BIRTHDAY, THE FIRST CHRISTMAS. THE FIRST I'M WAITING FOR IS THE FIRST TIME I'LL

SEE YOUR FACE AGAIN. SON YOU WERE NOT SUPPOSE TO GO BEFORE ME. SUCH JOY WHEN I SEE YU AGAIN. KEEP LOOKING NOTHING CAN STOP ME NOW. I'LL SEE YOU SOON. SON I LOVE YOU AND I CAN'T TELL YOU HOW MUCH YOU ARE MISSED, I DON'T HAVE THE WORDS. I'M TRYING HARD TO MADE YOU PROUD OF ME. I WANT TO BE THE LIGHT YOU WERE. YOU WERE WISER THAN US ALL.

Tanya Humphrey

The memories i have of Matt, are the one were he always smiled at me and gave me a hug. He was always there when we needed him, and he always knew what to say. I will always remember his smile and his voice. I will always remember him singing everyday in class. I also will never forget the beautiful pictures he drew for me. Matthew I thank you for all the memories you have allowed me to have with you and I will always remember those. I can't wait until the day comes when I will be able to see you again. I love and miss you so much Matt.

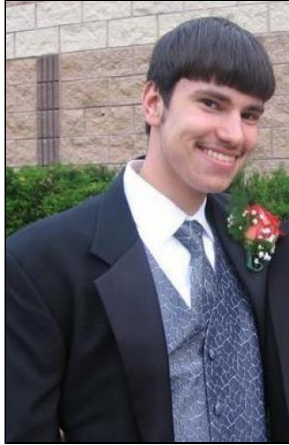

Louise Blankenship

Matthew, my most memory of you is playing hide n seek down corine with flash lights....lol....most of all the way you always talked to me about church and you could tell you was always ready to go.....I appreicate everything you have done and now i appreicate church, friends, and family more and I love you and miss you more each and everyday

Brittany Wrenn

I'll always remember when we went to scarowins you helped me when I was scared by holding my hand and riding with me on the rollercoaster. Thanks for being there.

Kristie Matthews

The ones that pop out in my mind are all of us playing hide n seek in yours and matts yards and all of us going up to hind in the tree house and i almost broke my ankle.. and me you and matt tearing down wallpaper for his mom in their old house.. those were great memories.. I will never forget them or you.. I miss you and Love you and i can't wait till i can see you again!!

Candace Belcher

I remember the first time we met...My grandpa and your mom were getting married. You tugged on my dad's pants and asked him, "what's it like having a little brother now?" and everyone just smiled and laughed. I'll never forget going to the Super Chevy Show with the whole family and getting scared while we were going under the drag strip while the jet cars were racing. I'll always remember that smile on your face whenever you killed your first deer. We helped you clean it up. We always had so much fun together. Whether it was arguing about cheerleading or just having small talk in school. You were always so happy. Sandy misses you so much, but we're trying to get her involved in everything. Me and Dad are going to your house tonight. I just want you to know that I love you with all my heart and you are still one of my best uncles i could EVER ask for. I'm praying for our family and I hope that one day we'll be able to see each other again.

Emily Jackson

When i think about you..i can remember ur wonderful face and ur smile thats could change any bad mood that i was in..there are a few things that stick out the most..and those are..the day when it was pouring rain...pouring so hard that you couldnt see where you were going..and i remember that u had like 2 chocolate covered pretzels and u gave me one..and i wanted some soo bad..so you rode your bike home from courtneys in the pouring rain just to get me a baggy full..i can also remember hearing you sing Red Dirt Road..and..even more so 3 Wooden Crosses..but the main thing that i want to think you for..is trying to get me to see what was actually real..and to try and get me to be careful with my decisions with boys..(u know a certain one in particular)..you were always there for me no matter what...and i remember that nite...when it was real late and me and u were outside in the SNOW having that huge heart to heart..Matthew I will never forget these memories..

I love you and miss you soooooo much, Cuz!

Alvin Cook

God where do i start...we have soo many memories together. From going bowling together in the 4th grade to DJ'ing the Halloween dance in 8th grade. We hung out all the time and especially on the weekends. We grew up together and i will never forget all of the fun times we had together. I miss you and love you..and some day we will see each other again!!!

November 26, 2007

Matthew was a senior at Wyoming East High School and was a high honor student. He was a member of Mullens Church of God where he was very active in the Youth Group. His favorite hobby was hunting. Throughout his young life Matthew was an example to all of his peers he was a role model to those older than he, they saw that he was wiser than us all. For he knew the true meaning of life. "God, Faith, Family and Friends". Seventeen years, seems short but with God a day is a 1,000 years and 1,000 years is a day. He lived much in his short life. Matthew was a carpenter, hunter and fisherman and was also a Fisher of Men. He loved working on a cabin with his friend Justin Janes. He led others to the God he served, a light in a dark world where he will forever shine with a light that never goes out. Matthew loved and was loved by many. You will live forever in our memories and hearts.
